

We're looking for the right person to join our team for the summer!

Youth and Family Ministry Summer Community Liason

A returning high school, college, university or seminary student, who is interested in impacting the lives of youth! This is a 35 hr./week (5 weekdays, with a few Sunday mornings) position lasting potentially from June 18- August 24. The successful candidate will work primarily with Jim Chen, our Youth Pastor.

Specific Duties will include:

- Assist in planning and implementing "Community Nights" targeted at the surrounding neighbourhood throughout the summer.
- Assisting in implementing a drop-in program for youth for July and August.
- Recruit volunteers to assist with Community Nights and Drop-Ins.
- Assist in administrative functions that pertain to youth ministry on a regular basis.
- Assistance with our Annual Day Camp in August, specifically in the area of supervising teen volunteers.
- Other duties as time allows.

Qualifications:

- Must be a follower of Jesus Christ with a daily walk which exemplifies a desire to submit to His Lordship and serve Him whole heartedly in accordance with our Beliefs and Values.
- Must be a returning high school, college, university or seminary student, with a heart for children and the development of their spiritual walk as followers of Christ.
- Must be flexible and adaptable, administrative and organized as well as able to multi-task.
- Skills in Adobe Photoshop or Microsoft Publisher would be an asset.
- Must be able to provide a suitable police background check and references.
- Must be available to work full-time, with at least ½ a day on some Sundays being included.
- Must have a sense of humour (we're into fun around here! ☺)

Interested? Please send your resume and cover letter to us by: March 16, 2018.

If you are able to get your documents to us early, please indicate if you would be available for an interview at the church over your Reading Week (February 19 to 23).

Jim Chen

Youth Pastor

jim.chen@forestbrook.ca

Forest Brook Community Church
60 Kearney Drive
Ajax, ONT, L1T 4N2
(905) 427-3442 x 105