As a family, sit down together: after reading the Bible passage above discuss the following:

ANSWER

10 MINUTES

- Why was the Temple important to the Jewish people?
- In this passage, God is not happy with the Israelites. Why? (v.2)
- What were the people focusing on instead? (v.4&9)
- Through the Prophet Haggai's message, what did God want them to do, and why? (v.8)
- What was the people's response? (v.12)
- Where is the place you meet with God as a family? Is it church? or your living room, or somewhere outside?
- What can you do to make a place special where you can regularly meet with and honour God?

Together as a family: Here are some ideas for you to do as a family!

Honouring God doesn't have to be grand or planned out. It is also in the little acts of kindness and caring and justice.

- Make a list of little things you do that honour God.
- Do you like your list?
- What would you add to it?
- Pay attention to the things you do this week. Catch yourself doing things that honour God!

Building and fixing things can get messy before they start to look good. So this new place and space for God in your day to day activities may take some getting used to.

PRAY: Ask God "Where would you like to meet with us?" "What do we need to do to make it ready for us to meet with you? Help us not to get discouraged as we get used to meeting you this way."

Oh nuts and bolts! there is something wrong with the colouring page! Can you figure out what it is? Please fix it!
