

This journal is a companion for your journey of Radical Hospitality.

Use it as a place to process, pray and prepare. Follow the prompts, or write your own. Doodle, highlight, fold down the corners. Tuck it in your backpack, bring it with you on Sundays, use it at your Flourish Group, or keep it on your nightstand.

The value of these pages is in your words, your story.

What's with the pineapple, you ask?
It's the international symbol of hospitality and welcome. It's a source of sustenance and nutrition.
With spiky, protective skin and sweet, juicy insides, it's both wise and surprising by design. The pineapple shares many great characteristics with this journey we're on.

And if you can't think of anything to write, there's always your thoughts on pineapples + pizza.

"A gracious spirit of welcome, equality, and care can help in efforts to heal racial divisions and previous exclusions. However, such hospitality is more complex than welcoming "those people into our church" or "making room at our table". In the church, especially, it is not our table to which we welcome people; it is God's table to which we come as equals.

WELCOMING THE STRANGER	WHY IS IT SO 'RADICAL'?

WHAT HOLDS US BACK?
	"Working for people, serving and caring for people, is valuable and necessary work. But as you've likely noticed, working for people rarely translates into being with people. All those service projects and volunteer hours – working for people – rarely translate into relationships and friendships."

"Kinship— not serving the other, but being one with the other. Jesus was not "a man for others"; he was one with them. There is a world of difference in that. Compassion isn't just about feeling the pain of others; it's about bringing them in toward yourself."

Christine Pohl, Making Room

JESUS AS THE STRANGER
"The Good Samaritan story is not just an example of compassionate spirituality. It is a critique against religious passivity."
Rich Villodas

INTERDEPDENCE
	"Here is what we seek: a compassion that can stand in awe at what the poor have to carry rather than stand in judgement of how they carry it."

"We need to dispel the myth that empathy is walking in someone else's shoes Rather than walking in your shoes, I need to learn how to listen to the story you tell about what it's like in your shoes and believe you when it doesn't match my experiences."

PROXIMITY AS THE SOLUTION
	"Hospitality doesn't shove unpresentable people into the corner. Hospitality welcomes them onto the stage and into the spotlight This rehabilitative honoring – giving honor, care and attention to people who don't usually get our honor, care and attention – allows the church to show equal concern for everyone."

WHAT DOES A FLOURISHING COMMUNITY LOOK LIKE?	"Practitioners of hospitality point us toward what is possible and then beyond it; they often minister in the midst of great need, knowing that they cannot do it all, but doing something. They help us see what can be done.
	Sometimes small acts of hospitality are offered in the midst of enormous and unrelenting need. To survive in such settings we must recognize the value of each person and acknowledge that God is already at work in their lives. Although small expressions of care do not relieve vast socioeconomic desperation or widespread disease,
	when we share our lives with people and stand with them, we find a freedom to work and to sustain ministry without necessarily seeing great solutions."
